BACKGROUND

In 2005 representatives of the South African Film and Television industry resolved to come together under the auspices of the National Film and Video Foundation of South Africa (NFVF) to establish the annual South African Film and Television Awards, Herein referred to as the SAFTAs awards.

The South African Film and Television Awards (SAFTAs), also known as the Golden Horns, are awards for film and television presented in South Africa and first given out in 2006. They are awarded by the National Film and Video Foundation of South Africa (NFVF).

All SAFTA winners are presented with the Golden Horn, the official SAFTA Trophy. The faces on the statues are derived from artifacts of African heritage that date back to 800 AD and were discovered near Lydenburg in South Africa, referred to as the Lydenburg Heads. The three figureheads represent excellence in visual creative arts, performance and drama.

The SAFTAs Project overview:

SAFTAs is an annual project that is designed to:

- Promote quality and excellence in South African film and television products
- Highlight and profile celebrated South African talent and product to national and international markets
- Encourage the growth of talent and encourage new talent within the industry
- Encourage entrepreneurship within the South African Film and Television market
- Stimulate participation by a broad mass of the industry in competitive awards events

Scope of Work:

The Prospective Service Provider shall apply sound and technical practices and methods in carrying out the assignment. The SAFTAs solicits a proposal from a Sponsorship Management Company that will manage the raising and securing of sponsorship for the SAFTAs 12 event.

The NFVF intends to stage and broadcast the 12th Annual SAFTAs ceremony, which will take place in March 2018. The SAFTAs event is a stage production with the live-to-air broadcast for a period of 120-180 minutes.

Therefore, the NFVF solicits a proposal from a skilled Sponsorship Management Company who has extensive expertise in raising sponsorship for large-scale events within the entertainment genre. The company needs to present a clearly documented and well thought out proposal for raising, securing and managing the sponsorship for the 12th Annual SAFTAs. Furthermore, the mandate of the NFVF is to promote the South African film industry locally and globally and increase audience access to South African content. Every year the NFVF facilitates and guides the participation of filmmakers in festivals and markets abroad through the following programmes:

- a) Local and global positioning initiatives
- b) Co-production Treaties Activations
- c) Participation in Local and Global Film Festivals and other platforms

The Sponsorship Management Company will be required to work together with the NFVF internal SAFTAs and Marketing team to ensure that the sponsorship is achieved.

The role of the Sponsorship Management Company is to:

1. Raise and secure sponsorship on behalf of the NFVF for the 12th Annual SAFTAs Awards property.
2. Raise and secure sponsorship on behalf of the NFVF for local and global activations at markets and film festivals.
3. The Sponsorship Management Company will act as an independent contractor in the performance of its duties under this contract.
4. Accordingly, the Sponsorship Management Company shall be responsible for payment of all taxes arising out of the sponsorship raising activities.
5. All costs related to securing sponsorship by the Sponsorship Management Company will be for their account.

CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

1 This Standard Bidding Document (SBD) must form part of all bids¹ invited.

2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).² Collusive bidding is a pe se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.

3 Treasury Regulation 16A9 prescribes that accounting officers and accounting authorities must take all reasonable steps to prevent abuse of the supply chain management system and authorizes accounting officers and accounting authorities to:

- a. disregard the bid of any bidder if that bidder, or any of its directors have abused the institution's supply chain management system and or committed fraud or any other improper conduct in relation to such system.
- b. cancel a contract awarded to a supplier of goods and services if the supplier committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of that contract.

4 This SBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.

5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (SBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

² Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.
