NATIONAL FILM AND VIDEO FOUNDATION CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Members of the film and video community and the general public are hereby invited to nominate members for Council of the National Film and Video Foundation (NFVF), as per requirement of the National Film and Video Foundation Act, 1997 (Act 73 of 1997). The Council will consist of no fewer than nine and no more than fourteen members.

The objectives of the NFVF include to advise the film and video industry, to encourage persons, especially in the disadvantaged communities, to get involved in the film and video industry, to encourage the development and distribution of local products and also to address historical imbalances in the infrastructure and distribution of skills and resources.

Nominees should have special knowledge or experience in the film and video industry, or specialist skills which are not directly related to the film and video industry, but which would be beneficial to the Council, such as legal knowledge, knowledge of marketing, liaison and fundraising. Nominees may not hold office in any political party or political organization.

A short-list of no more than twenty names will be compiled to ensure that the final selection will as far as possible, include people with qualifications or special experience or interest in the film and video industry who represent all communities and both genders. The overall selection is to be of the highest possible calibre.

Nominees will thus be interviewed in public. Any member of the public may object in writing to the nomination of any person. The members will be appointed by the Minister.

Anyone wishing to nominate members of the Council or NFVF should submit:

- A letter giving reasons for the nomination,
- The Nominees' full name and address, telephone, cellular phone, fax numbers and email address,
- The nominees' curriculum vitae, explaining his or her suitability for appointment,
- A brief statement, signed by the nominee, agreeing to the nomination,
- The names and contact particulars of three references who know the nominee.

No nomination will be considered unless all the above information is submitted.

Nominations are to be submitted to: Dr Mbulelo Jokweni, Acting Deputy Director –General, Department of Arts and Culture, Private Bag X894 Pretoria 0001 or 6th Floor, 481 Kingsley Building, Beatrix Street, Corner Church, Arcadia Pretoria or E-mail sizeka.mabunda@dac.gov.za or tsakani.sithole@dac.gov.za or fax to 012 441 3456.

Closing Date: 2 November 2010.
