The film's producer must read the following and sign below.

I have read the attached rules governing Academy Award submission for foreign language films and accept them. Any violation of the rules may lead to the retraction of any Academy honor the film receives.

- I hereby certify that the above information is correct.
- I understand that, according to Academy rules, the print or DCP of the motion picture submitted to the Academy will be held until the voting process is completed and then, if not nominated, returned to the filmmaker at Academy expense.
- I understand that if the motion picture is selected for the shortlist for the Foreign Language Film Award, 2 additional English language prints or DCPs must be delivered to the Academy by the Thursday after the shortlist is announced and that the Academy will retain one print for its archives. My permission is hereby given for the Academy to select, stream, broadcast, and post on our website or archive an excerpt from the film.
- I understand that only films that receive Academy nominations or Awards may refer to their Academy endorsements in advertising and publicity materials.
- Finally, I understand and agree that, in accordance with the Academy's rules, the Academy has the right to make the final determination in questions of eligibility.

Please also send us this page with producer's signature to the Academy.
