

SAFTAs18 open call for in-memorial segment

The National Film and Video Foundation (NFVF), an agency of the Department of Sport, Arts, and Culture and custodian of the SAFTAs is calling all South Africans in the film and television industry to submit names of departed practitioners who passed away between 23 September 2023 and throughout 2024, thus far. The In Memoriam call is to give honour to all the fallen heroes and heroines in the Memoriam section of the awards on 26 October 2024.

Please send the following information:

- Full name and surname, date of birth, and date of passing of the practitioner.
- Three high-resolution images.
- Biography of the practitioner that includes the role (title) played in the film and television industry.

Submit all the requested information before 7 October 2024 to the SAFTAs Team at
